

10-30-15 Duxbury Cultural Council Minutes, Philbrick Room, Senior Center

Approval date: 05-20-16

Present; Craig Bloodgood, Suzanne Errasti, Helen Fowler, Mary Beth Macquarrie, Judith Montminy, Jan Schwartz, Marion Thayer.

Jan called the meeting to order at 9:40am.

The minutes from the 05/08/15 meeting and the 09/18/15 meetings were read and approved.

Helen Fowler was welcomed back to the Board.

Each of the 17 applications for grants for 2016 was reviewed and voted on. One (Pied Potter of Hamelin) was denied as he indicated no venue. The letter of denial will go out immediately. A total of $5870 is available for grants; 13 applications were granted the full amount requested and 3 were granted reduced amounts, as follows:

- #1 Mass. Audubon, $100
- #2 Fuller Craft Museum (ARTKitchen), $200
- #3 North River Arts Society, $400
- #4 Friends of Duxbury COA, $500
- #5 Plymouth Philharmonic Orchestra, $500
- #6 South Shore Arts Center, $500
- #7 Snug Harbor Community Chorus, $500
- #8 Bill Alberti, $120
- #9 Duxbury Free Library, $500
- #10 Choral Art Society of South Shore, $500
- #11 Pilgrim Hall Museum, $250
- #12 SE Mass. Pine Barrens Alliance, Inc., $400
- #13 Friends of Myles Standish State Forest, $400
- #14 Fuller Craft Museum (vacation day projects), $300
- #15 Pied Potter Hamelin, $500, DENIED
- #16 Duxbury HS Theater, $200, for awards only
- #!7 Duxbury Art Association, $500

Oyster shell tree sales have gone well, 45 have sold, there are currently 35 left. Trees may be picked up at the Senior Center on Nov. 13 and 14 from 9 am to 12 noon. Members of the committee will be on hand to package the trees. Any remaining trees will be sold at the King Caesar house on Dec. 12.

The next meeting will be held, if necessary for appeals, at the Senior Center on Nov. 13

The meeting was adjourned at 10:40 am.

Respectfully submitted,
Marion Thayer

