

For Duxburyites & History Readers on Your Holiday List . . .

Duxbury 2020 commemorative publication featuring essays by twelve local historians each with a unique look into early Duxbury. Also featured is a compelling perspective by an independent scholar of the Wampanoag nation. Essays include Duxbury's Archeological History ❄ Clark's Island: From Pilgrims to Today ❄ Duxbury's Early Lands & Leaders ❄ Adventuresome William Collier ❄ Backstory to Colonization ❄ John & Priscilla Alden of Duxbury ❄ Day-to-Day Life in the 17th Century ❄ Priscilla & Her Children ❄ Along Ancient Paths ❄ Searching for the Old Burying Ground ❄ The Delano Family ❄ Duxbury's Myles Standish Monument.

"...this book majors in keeping to the 17th century with extensive end notes for further ancestor research. Beautifully illustrated with photographs of monuments, ancient documents and map comparisons of how the land looked then and now".

Beth Lambert, Governor, Oregon Mayflower Society

Order Today. Supplies Limited.

2020 holiday gift for friends and family. Very readable for all ages. Discover new artifacts from a 1960's dig at the Alden House Historic Site. Follow Native American paths through Duxbury's Town Forest. Learn the centuries old politics surrounding the Old Burying Ground. Engage with stories about Pilgrim leaders as they settled "across the Bay" in future Duxbury and defined land rights for the Colony.

Order online at www.alden.org or www.duxburyhistory.org with local pick up at the Alden House, or shipped if you prefer. Or, mail check payable to Duxbury 2020 c/o PO Box 2407, Duxbury, MA 02331. Cost is $27.95 plus $4.95 shipping, if applicable.

Developed for the Plymouth 400 commemoration by the Alden House Historic Site, Duxbury Rural & Historical Society, and Duxbury 2020, Inc.

