Independence Associates, Inc. (IA)

is located in East Bridgewater, MA and serves Duxbury and 30 other communities south east of Boston.

Since 1980, IA has worked with people with disabilities providing the resources which enable them to live as independently as they wish in the setting that they choose. Living independently is about dignity, freedom and overcoming the barriers which still exist today for persons with disabilities. As a cross age, cross cultural and cross disability organization, IA works to provide resources to any person with a disability living within the communities we serve.

Independence for consumers is achieved with the five Core Services:
Information and Referral, Skills Training, Peer Counseling, Advocacy, Transition
