

Out to See Duxbury

Saturday, April 29th 2023
10 to 4 pm All Around Duxbury!

*The Duxbury Community Collaborative promotes the cultural, historical, and educational activities of Duxbury non-profits.
Learn more at seeduxbury.org*

Duxbury Beach Reservation 10 am to 4 pm Family event – Discover who lives on the beach while exploring the new dune and beach restoration area.
12pm – Dune Debut Walk with DBR staff and project engineers

Bay Farm Montessori 10 am to 12 pm Open Farm Day - Say "hi" to the Bay Farm animals, play on the playground, and enjoy a plant potting craft.

Duxbury Senior Center 10 am to 12 pm Presentation by Tony Kelso on the history of the Powder Point Bridge and treats from the Mayflower Café. Check out the new designs for the café!

Duxbury Student Union 10 am to 2 pm Open House - Find out why kids say "I love DSU." Kids and their parents/guardians are invited to participate together in DSU's favorite challenges, inside and outside.

Duxbury Bay Maritime School 10 am to 2 pm Open house for Rowing for adults with races for kids and Open Marine Science Lab with lessons for kids.

Duxbury Free Library 11 am to 12 pm "Craftermorning" for kids and families. Drop into the Children's Room for an ocean-themed craft!

Duxbury Rural and Historical Society 11 am & 1 pm Learn the historic tradition of surprising friends with a May basket, and create one to give to someone special! Workshops begin at 11 am and 1pm.

South Shore Conservatory 11am to 4pm South Shore Conservatory will offer a variety of engaging arts opportunities for the whole family.

Duxbury Art Association 11 am to 5 pm Come visit the Ellison Center for a celebration and viewing of artwork and a meet and greet with local artists.

Art Complex Museum 1 pm to 3 pm Herring Run Event: Speaker@1:30: Brian Taylor from the North and South Rivers Watershed Association. Family activities on the museum grounds and art activities for kids.

Alden Kindred (Alden House) 2 pm to 4 pm Join the salty trio of the Rum-Soaked Crooks for a musical salute to Duxbury's maritime history, from the Mayflower era to sea chanteys and the Age of Sail. Includes tours of the museum and craft for kids.

Enter to win a free prize basket! Visitors can submit a free entry for a drawing at each location.

There may be a photographer at some of the events/locations: By attending, I understand that my image may be edited, copied, published or distributed and waive the right to inspect or approve the finished product wherein my likeness appears.