

O'Neil Farm & Berrybrook Fields

O'Neil Farm, in production for over 200 years, is one of the oldest working dairy farms on the South Shore. The Avery Trail has interpretive signs and passes through woods and past grazing cows. The Chandler Trail begins on a dirt road leading to an open field and into woods, where there are interpretive signs and a brook crossing.

Property Details: 145 acres

Avery Trail: 0.8 mile loop, Chandler Trail: 1.5 mile loop

Vegetation: Eastern white pine, red & white oak, hay fields

Features: Dairy farm; Brooks; Pastures; Vernal pool

Terrain: Easy/moderate - Relatively flat

Parking: Lot with an information kiosk is on Autumn Ave

Berrybrook Fields provide a scenic streetscape where mown fields surround an iconic oak tree.

Property Details: 41 acres

Vegetation: Hay field, oaks, Eastern white pine

Features: Farm road; Vernal pools

Terrain: Easy - Relatively flat

Parking: Roadside parking is available along Winter Street